

PEOPLE IN THE THEATRE (or their families) INTERVIEWED BY
GLENDA E. GILL

1. Benjamin Matthews, Artistic Director, Opera Ebony, April, 2001
2. Gerald Dolter, baritone, June, 2000
3. Steven Jepson, baritone, June, 1999
4. James Earl Jones, actor, September, 1998
5. Morgan Freeman, actor, February, 1997
6. Ruby Dee, actor, September, 1992
7. Talley Beatty, dancer/choreographer, June, 1991
8. Maya Angelou, dancer, poet, autobiographer, director,
February, 1991
9. William Warfield, baritone, February, 1991
10. Earle Hyman, actor, May, 1988
11. Lloyd Richards, director, June, 1985
12. Dick Campbell, tenor, director, manager, activist, June, 1985
13. Carlton Moss, actor, film maker, December, 1982
14. Leonard de Paur, arranger/conductor, March, 1982
15. Rosamond Gilder, critic, March, 1982
16. Abram Hill, playwright, March, 1982
17. Carl Lee, actor and son of Canada Lee, March, 1982
18. Robert Earl Jones, actor and father of James Earl Jones,
June, 1980
19. Lofton Mitchell, theatre historian and college professor,
June, 1980
20. Frances Lee, wife of Canada Lee, June, 1980
21. Frederick O'Neal, actor, unionizer, and the only African American President of Actors Equity, June, 1980
22. Thomas Anderson, actor, November, 1977
23. Woodie King, Jr., playwright and Director of the New Federal Theatre, November, 1977

PROFESSOR GILL HAS ALSO CONDUCTED VAST CORRESPONDENCE WITH:

1. John Houseman, actor/director
2. Virgil Thomson, musician
3. Sidney Poitier, actor
4. James Earl Jones, actor
5. Hal Wallis, Producer of Casablanca
6. Paul Green, playwright and Pulitzer-Prize winner, 1927
7. Brooks Atkinson, drama critic for The New York Times
8. Rosamond Gilder, drama critic for Theatre Arts Monthly
9. Steven Jepson, baritone (opera singer)
10. Kelly Hall-Tompkins, classical violinist
11. Alan Paton, author of Cry, the Beloved Country
12. Kevin O'Morrison, actor
13. Dick Campbell, actor, producer, tenor, activist
14. Fred O'Neal, actor, unionizer
15. Earle Hyman, actor